There are 54 recognized countries in Africa according to the United Nations. Each has a unique capital city, though some countries like South Africa and Eswatini have multiple capitals for administrative, legislative, or judicial purposes. [1, 2, 3, 4]

The African Capitals by State | BlackPast.orgAfrica Map with Countries and Capitals - GIS GeographyAfrican Countries and their Capitals in English | List of ...

African Countries and Their Capital Cities

The following list is organized alphabetically: [5, 6, 7]

Country [1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10]	Capital City
Algeria	Algiers
Angola	Luanda
Benin	Porto-Novo
Botswana	Gaborone
Burkina Faso	Ouagadougou
Burundi	Gitega (formerly Bujumbura)
Cabo Verde (Cape Verde)	Praia
Cameroon	Yaoundé
Central African Republic	Bangui
Chad	N'Djamena

Country [1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10]	Capital City
Comoros	Moroni
Congo (Brazzaville)	Brazzaville
Congo (DRC)	Kinshasa
Côte d'Ivoire	Yamoussoukro (official); Abidjan (economic)
Djibouti	Djibouti City
Egypt	Cairo
Equatorial Guinea	Malabo (official); Ciudad de la Paz (under construction)
Eritrea	Asmara
Eswatini	Mbabane (administrative); Lobamba (legislative)
Ethiopia	Addis Ababa
Gabon	Libreville
Gambia	Banjul
Ghana	Accra
Guinea	Conakry
Guinea-Bissau	Bissau
Kenya	Nairobi
Lesotho	Maseru
Liberia	Monrovia

Country [1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10]	Capital City
Libya	Tripoli
Madagascar	Antananarivo
Malawi	Lilongwe
Mali	Bamako
Mauritania	Nouakchott
Mauritius	Port Louis
Morocco	Rabat
Mozambique	Maputo
Namibia	Windhoek
Niger	Niamey
Nigeria	Abuja
Rwanda	Kigali
São Tomé and Príncipe	São Tomé
Senegal	Dakar
Seychelles	Victoria
Sierra Leone	Freetown
Somalia	Mogadishu
South Africa	Pretoria (administrative); Cape Town (legislative); Bloemfontein (judicial)

Country [1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10]	Capital City
South Sudan	Juba
Sudan	Khartoum
Tanzania	Dodoma (official); Dar es Salaam (former capital/economic)
Togo	Lomé
Tunisia	Tunis
Uganda	Kampala
Zambia	Lusaka
Zimbabwe	Harare